TENNIS RUNS IN THE FAMILY AT THE CITY OF VICTORIA OPEN

VICTORIA, BC – Tennis was not only a family affair at this year’s City of Victoria Open Tennis Tournament, but siblings and father/son doubles teams were also big winners.

Brother and sister, Reuven and Mia Gordon, won the Mixed Open Doubles, while Ravjot and Saroop Dhatt won the Mixed Open Doubles Consolation.

Brothers, Kieran and Wesley Bertsch, won the Mens Open Doubles Consolation.

Father and son combinations won the 4.5 Doubles (Tom and Cameron Gunton), 3.5 Doubles (Alec and Michael Allison) and 3.5 Doubles Consolations (Kerry and Christopher Chan).

Patrick Flint won the Mens Singles and Mia Gordon took the Womens Singles title.

Over the last week including the long Canada Day weekend, the City of Victoria Open has featured almost 300 players, including Seniors and National Qualifying Juniors.

The tournament was held on public courts around the City of Victoria and is the largest tennis tournament on Vancouver Island.
